

Exposure sites

Exposure sites will no longer be published online.

Visitors will not be notified of potential exposures at places like restaurants, cafes, or shops.

Business owners or staff will not know of potential exposures via patrons or visitors.

A new alert function in the Service Victoria app can notify people where there is a higher risk of transmission.

For information about exposure sites – coronavirus.vic.gov.au/case-alerts-public-exposure-sites

