Gippsland PHN seeks new Board Directors to help shape a measurably healthier Gippsland

Gippsland Primary Health Network (Gippsland PHN) is seeking expressions of interest for three upcoming Board vacancies commencing in November 2026.

The vacancies include two elected Director positions and one appointed Director position.

Gippsland PHN is seeking strategic, community-focused and values-driven leaders who can contribute to improving health outcomes across Gippsland and support strong governance in a complex and evolving health system.

Gippsland PHN Company Secretary Amanda Proposch said Board Directors played an important role in guiding the organisation's strategic direction and supporting its vision for a measurably healthier Gippsland.

"Gippsland PHN works across a large and diverse region, supporting better health outcomes through commissioning, coordination, system leadership and primary care support," Ms Proposch said.

"We are looking for people who bring strong strategic thinking, community focus and values-driven leadership to help guide this important work.

"This is an opportunity to contribute to the future of primary health care in Gippsland and support strong governance in a changing health system."

Skills and experience of interest include:

- Digital and data governance
- Commissioning and system design
- Commercial and financial acumen
- Primary care clinical expertise and/or health system knowledge

Ms Proposch said Gippsland PHN welcomed applications from people of all backgrounds.

"We are committed to a Board that reflects the diversity of the communities we serve," Ms Proposch said.

"We encourage people with relevant skills, experience and a passion for improving health outcomes across Gippsland to consider applying."

Successful candidates will be required to have a director ID, or be in the process of obtaining one, and undergo background checks, including criminal history checks.

For full details, including eligibility requirements, application documents and instructions on how to apply, visit the Board Director Expression of Interest webpage.

Applications close at 11:59pm on Sunday 2 August 2026.
