The webinar will cover both skin cancer checks and the Early Detection Saves Lives Campaign. The campaign was informed by Cancer Council Victoria's Behavioural Insights Research and community consultation, which highlighted the need of Victorians to be reassured by doctors to book appointments for symptoms or cancer screening.

Presenters:

Sabine Ostrowski,
Manager - Early Detection.
Screening Early Detection and Immunisation, Cancer Council
Victoria.

Shannon Jones,
Health Professionals Program
Manager. SunSmart, Cancer Council
Victoria.

Associate Professor, Victoria Mar,
Director of Victorian Melanoma
Service and Image Trial Chief Investigator.

Topics covered include;

- The impacts of COVID on cancer diagnoses
- The Behavioural Insights that led to the Early Detection Saves Lives Campaign
- How practitioners can support the Early Detection Saves Lives Campaign
- Skin Checks and enrolling in the Cancer Council Victoria dermoscopy program
- The IMAGE trial at Bass Coast Health
