ASHM in collaboration with key nursing associations, ACNP, AHA, ASHHNA, DANA, is delivering a series of four 60 minute interactive live webinars. The webinars will aim to assist nurses to develop an understanding of what elements of their work are suitable for a conference abstract and provide practical guidance on how to translate that work to writing a successful abstract. Nurses will be encouraged to register for all four webinars. These include:

Identifying ideas for a conference abstract: 24th August, 6:30PM - 7:30PM (AEST)

Developing an idea for a conference abstract: 13th September, 6:30PM - 7:30pm (AEST)

Interpreting conference abstract guidelines: 11th October, 6:30PM - 7:30PM (AEDT)

Tips and tricks for writing a conference abstract: 2nd November, 6:30PM - 7:30PM (AEDT)

On completion of the webinar series participants will have:

- Examined their work to identify activities relevant for writing a concept brief and conference abstract
- Demonstrated understanding of interpreting conference themes and abstract guidelines to formulate an abstract

These webinars will be facilitated and presented by nurses experienced in developing successful abstracts for conferences.
